Summary of Legislation: This bill extends the authority to enter a plea of no contest to juvenile, criminal, nonmoving traffic violations, and other violations punishable as an infraction. It replaces references to "nolo contendere" with the phrase "no contest". It includes a reference to the plea of guilty but mentally ill at the time of the crime in all statutory lists of the available pleas in Indiana. It provides that a traffic violation form that includes a reference to the phrase "nolo contendere" or fails to contain a reference to a plea or finding of "guilty but mentally ill at the time of the crime" may be used after June 30, 2001, to the same extent as if the form referred to the phrase "no contest" or contained the phrase "guilty but mentally ill at the time of the crime". It makes related changes.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.
